DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities:

Line 8, "detecting" should be replaced by --detection---.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1 and 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hsieh (U. S. Patent No. 5,249,123).

With regard to claim 1, Hsieh disclosed a radiographic apparatus comprising: radiation emitting means (13); radiation detection means (14); signal sampling means (31) for taking radiation detection signals from the radiation detection means at predetermined sampling time intervals (column 4, lines 26-45); and time lag removing means (26) for determining lag-free radiation detection signals by subtracting the lag-free radiation detection signals from the respective radiation detection signals by a recursive computation (column 5, lines 64-66), on an assumption that a lag-behind part included in each of the radiation detection signals taken by the signal sampling means at the predetermined sampling time intervals is due to an impulse response formed of one exponential function or a plurality of exponential functions with different attenuation time constants (column 4, lines 57-68).

With regard to claims 3-5, these claims fail to set forth additional structural limitations. Accordingly, they are rejected with claim 1. MPEP § 2114.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hsieh (U. S. Patent No. 5,249,123) as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Roos et al. (U. S. Patent No. 6,041,097).

With regard to claim 6, Hsieh disclosed a radiographic apparatus as defined in claim 1. However, Hsieh failed to disclose a flat panel x-ray detector.

Roos et al. disclosed a CT system comprising a flat panel x-ray detector. Roos et al. taught that a flat panel detector would provide a volumetric image data acquisition system which improves x-ray utilization resulting in faster patient scan times and reduced radiation dose (column 2, lines 53-57). In addition, a flat panel x-ray detector has improved spatial resolution due to its fine detector matrix spacings (column 2, lines 58-62).

It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to employ an x-ray flat panel detector as the radiation detecting means, since a person would be motivated to achieve the above mentioned advantages.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 1, 2, and 6 provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 14, and 15 of copending Application No. 10/853,357. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other.

8. Claims 1, 2, and 6 provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 2, 4, 10, and 11 of copending Application No. 10/885,634. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other.

9. Claims 1, 2, and 6 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 2, and 5 of copending

Art Unit: 2882

Application No. 10/887,920. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other.

10. Claims 1, 2, and 6 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 5, and 6, of copending Application No. 10/901,212. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other.

11. Claims 1, 2, and 6 provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 3, and 8 of copending Application No. 10/958,297. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Response to Arguments

12. Applicant's arguments filed 09 September 2005 with respect to claims 1-6 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-6 under 35 U.S.C. 112 second paragraph has been withdrawn.

13. Applicant's arguments filed 09 September 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants' arguments fail to comply with 37 CFR 1.111(b) because they amount to a general allegation that the claims define a patentable invention without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references.

Conclusion

14. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
